The four core workplace policies

Article 14, Cabinet Resolution No. 1 of 2022 (Executive Regulations of the UAE Labour Law)

Does it apply? Yes, if the entity has 50 or more workers. Check each entity on its own headcount. Under 50, the policies are still good practice.

1 Work instructions

The day-to-day rules everyone follows.

- Working hours, breaks and attendance
- Requesting leave and reporting absence
- Conduct, dress code, company property
- Health and safety

2 Penalties

What happens if someone breaks the rules.

Investigate → Hear the employee → Decide → Confirm in writing

Lightest to most serious

written notice · written warning · pay deduction · suspension · loss of increment or promotion · dismissal

3 Promotions and rewards

How people grow and get recognised.

- What it takes to be promoted
- How performance is reviewed
- Bonuses or rewards, and who approves them

4 Termination procedures

How employment ends properly.

- Resigning and notice periods
- When and how dismissal happens
- Exit steps: cancel the permit, final pay within 14 days

Grievances

A clear, visible way for employees to raise a concern and get a written reply within a set time.

1. Employee raises it
2. HR acknowledges
3. Review
4. Written reply by the deadline

HR checklist

- ☐ All four policies written and approved
- ☐ Shared in a language employees understand
- ☐ Grievance process on display
- ☐ Employee acknowledgement recorded*

* Good practice, not a stated requirement of Article 14.
